

Obituary in Vancouver Sun June 26, 2010
She passed away June 20, 2010

Kathleen Amy STUART-STUBBS

STUART-STUBBS, Kathleen Amy (Kammy) Passed away suddenly and unexpectedly, leaving to mourn her her parents Nancy and Basil Stuart-Stubbs, her stepmother Brenda Peterson, her sister Megan, brother-in-law Nick Murphy, nephew Alexander Murphy, her close friend Martin Behr, and a large extended family of aunts, uncles and cousins in B.C., New Brunswick, Washington State, California, and England. Her large circle of friends will join the family in its profound sense of loss. She was kind, gentle and generous by nature, and sympathetic to the plight of the less fortunate. Educated at Vancouver schools and Vancouver Community College, she pursued a career as a medical office assistant. A celebration of her life will take place at a later time. Donations may be made to a charity of your choice. Consider also some act of kindness, as a reflection of her own compassionate spirit. Condolences and tributes may be sent by visiting RememberingKammy.blogspot.com .